Cass Avenue bridge above I-94 in Detroit closed until Sunday for repair

Fast facts:

- The Cass Avenue bridge over I-94 in Detroit is currently closed for repair work.
- The closure of Cass, between West Palmer Avenue and Antoinette Street, will remain in place until Sunday, March 22.
- Motorists can use M-1 (Woodward Avenue) to cross over I-94.

March 18, 2020 -- The Michigan Department of Transportation has closed the Cass Avenue overpass above I-94 in Detroit for bridge deck repair. Cass will remain closed until 5 a.m. Sunday, March 22 between West Palmer Avenue and Antoinette Street. During the closure, all motorists and non-motorized traffic can use nearby M-1 (Woodward Avenue) to cross over I-94.

Originally constructed in 1955, a contract to replace the Cass Avenue overpass is scheduled to be opened for competitive bidding in 2021.
